DETAILED ACTION and ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-17 have been examined and allowed.

Priority

2. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed and applicants have been afforded a priority date of August 21, 2000.

Reasons for Allowance

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
6. The prior art of record does not expressly teach or render obvious the claimed invention as recited in the systems of claim 1 and 2, individually. Though the prior art of record expressly teaches simulations using virtual models and state variables methodologies with control cycles including servo mechanism simulating systems with control models, the prior art does not explicitly teach the exacting elements arranged in the operable manner as recited and prescribed in independent claims 1 and 2. "A claim is anticipated only if each and every element as set forth in the claim is found, either expressly or inherently described, in a single prior art reference." Verdegaal Bros. v. Union Oil Co. of California, 814 F.2d 628, 631, 2 USPQ2d 1051, 1053 (Fed. Cir. 1987). "The identical invention must be shown in as complete detail as is contained in the ... claim." Richardson v. Suzuki Motor Co., 868 F.2d 1226, 1236, 9 USPQ2d 1913, 1920 (Fed. Cir. 1989). The elements must be arranged as required by the claim, but this is not an ipsissimis verbis test, i.e., identity of terminology is not required. In re Bond, 910 F.2d 831, 15 USPQ2d 1566 (Fed. Cir. 1990). The general concepts are taught and known throughout the prior art, however, the combined limitations as recited within each of the two independent claims 1 and 2 were not uncovered, in a single teaching.

Further, no motivation to combine the teachings of the prior art, including that which would have been known to one with an ordinary level of skill in this art, was uncovered so as to render the Applicant's detailed claims covering their invention obvious.

Dependent claims 3-17 are allowable as they depend on an allowed independent claims.

Conclusion

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
